

Want Some Action?

Had enough of lockdown? Had enough of waiting for a performance? Enough waiting for an audience? Us too. So... Until we can bring people to the theatre, we're taking the theatre to people! Interested? Read on...

Our Virtual Season, starting in October, can't come soon enough! So in the mean time, while still social distancing, we're looking to make the most of the new Covid rules. How? By filming a series of short, engaging monologues in the NVT studio. We'll then post these performances on the NVT YouTube page and social-media.

So: if you're an actor or director and want to work on a short piece, give it a little thought... Is there a monologue you'd like to revisit? Or perhaps a new piece you want to try? If you want to take part, here's the plan...

Actors: By Friday 14th August, make a monologue audition video. Send it to submissions@newventuretheatre.co.uk using www.wetransfer.com and follow these rules:

- Consider pieces that need minimal set and lighting
- Although the final piece can be longer*, make the audition piece under three minutes long
- Include the following details (can be emailed separately)
 - o Your name, phone number and email address
 - o The title of the play it is from
 - o The author
 - o Whether the audition piece is an extract of the monologue you wish to perform, or the entire piece
 - o If it is an extract, a script of the monologue and approximate length
 - o Details of your rehearsal availability

Directors: Email us on submissions@newventuretheatre.co.uk to register your interest, and we'll bear you in mind as the project progresses.

Most monologues under three minutes are royalty free, so we urge you to stay within this time limit; however, pieces of up to ten minutes long may be* considered if they are self-penned, or are in the public domain - please check no performance costs will be incurred before submitting a longer piece.
